New Business/Secretaries Report

The secretary presented a resolution which has been passed by the Board of Supervisors establishing a non uniformed pension plan effective January 1, 2010. The township will provide an 8% contribution to the pension fund for all full time township employees. After three years of contributions the state will begin to reimburse the township for contributions. Betty Barnhart made a motion to approve the resolution establishing a non uniformed employee pension plan for White Township and to authorize township officials to execute all documents relating to same. Carol Keifer seconded the motion. A vote was taken. All three auditors voted aye.

Meeting adjourned at 9:30 AM.

Respectfully Submitted,

---

Carol Keifer, Secretary
