Old Business

The secretary, solicitor, and engineer reported on the issuance of building permits for the Glendale Yearound. After meeting with DEP it is determined that building permits should continue to be issued until such time as DEP informs the township otherwise.

Roadmaster James Luther has met with Bob Mills of PennDOT concerning our summer road project. He recommends that the following roads be treated with a single seal coat: Nedimeyer Road, Oshell Road, Frye Road, Hughestown Road, Swartz Road, Foster Road, and Gates Road. Tracy Plessinger made a motion to advertise for the above project and apply to the county for County Aid from liquid fuels funds. James Luther seconded the motion. A vote was taken. Both supervisors present voted aye.

The ordinance for the township to opt in to performing the state UCC Inspection has been prepared and advertised as required. Tracy Plessinger made a motion to approve the ordinance as advertised. James Luther seconded the motion. A vote was taken. Both supervisors voted aye.

The ordinance for the township to join the Cambria County Building Codes Enforcement Agency to administer the UCC in the township has been prepared and advertised as required. Tracy Plessinger made a motion to approve the ordinance as advertised. James Luther seconded the motion. A vote was taken. Both supervisors voted aye.

A discussion of office equipment/office space for the secretary was tabled.

New Business/Secretaries Report

The secretary presented the minutes and agenda from the July meetings of the CCSEA and CCBCEA. He also reported that he has been elected chairman of the CCBCEA board.

We have been notified by the county the basis for assessed valuation has been changed from 50% of market value to 100% of market value. This change means that for next year the township cannot raise taxes more than 5%.

Brookville Logging has bonded Oshell Road. The roadmaster will keep check on the condition of the road as hauling progresses.

Payment of Accounts

Tracy Plessinger made a motion to pay the following bills. James Luther seconded the motion. A vote was taken. Both supervisors present voted aye.
